

Spatial Or Descriptive Method of Essay Structure

I. Introduction

- A. Hook: Introduce the reader to the topic using a descriptive and attention-grabbing sentence
- B. Brief explanation of the topic and its significance
- C. Thesis statement: Clearly state the main point of the essay and how it will be presented through spatial or descriptive methods

II. Spatial/Descriptive Body Paragraph 1

- A. Topic sentence: Introduce the first aspect of the topic that will be described spatially or descriptively
- B. Spatial/Descriptive details: Use vivid sensory details to describe the topic in a way that creates a mental image for the reader
- C. Analysis: Explain the significance of the spatial or descriptive details in relation to the thesis statement

III. Spatial/Descriptive Body Paragraph 2

- A. Topic sentence: Introduce the second aspect of the topic that will be described spatially or descriptively
- B. Spatial/Descriptive details: Use vivid sensory details to describe the topic in a way that creates a mental image for the reader
- C. Analysis: Explain the significance of the spatial or descriptive details in relation to the thesis statement

IV. Spatial/Descriptive Body Paragraph 3

- A. Topic sentence: Introduce the third aspect of the topic that will be described spatially or descriptively
- B. Spatial/Descriptive details: Use vivid sensory details to describe the topic in a way that creates a mental image for the reader
- C. Analysis: Explain the significance of the spatial or descriptive details in relation to the thesis statement

V. Spatial/Descriptive Body Paragraph 4

A. Topic sentence: Introduce the fourth aspect of the topic that will be described spatially or descriptively

B. Spatial/Descriptive details: Use vivid sensory details to describe the topic in a way that creates a mental image for the reader

C. Analysis: Explain the significance of the spatial or descriptive details in relation to the thesis statement

VI. Conclusion

A. Restate the thesis statement in a new way

B. Summarize the main points of the essay

C. Concluding sentence: End the essay with a strong and memorable sentence that leaves a lasting impression on the reader.

